i wish people stop saying African blacks don't like American blacks. If anything, its the opposite. American blacks tend to follow the brainwashing stereotypes that are displayed by the American dominate culture that attempts to make them believe everything about black is wrong. But, that don't fly no more. People are waking up to that bull. So, I don't know where you getting your information from, but its wrong.

So you are either a white or you're one of the aforementioned brainwashed individuals i spoke about.

No I'm just a person who lives in America and has shopped in many stores owned by Africans who treated me like the bottom of their shoe. I have South African friends I went to school with who said they thought we were all ignorant and were only my friend because I was "Different." They also preferred to date white Americans than any Black American Males. I have sisters and cousins who have gotten their hair braided by Africans who talked very rudely to them so they stopped going. I know white women who Africans have married for VISA's and they told them how they think we are good for nothing people. I don't know where u live. I speak experience and Facts. And this is Not ALL Africans but a lot.

so, let me get this right. You shop at a store where they treat you like the bottom of their shoe? Okay!

Well I have real experience. I've been to South Africa, Nigeria, Senegal, Ghana and a few other countries. I have family that now live in those nations as well. I've had native African girlfriends. I don't know who the hell you dealing with, but your argument is no different than a white person saying all black people are criminals if they see a few black criminals themselves. I bet you didn't even know that the nation of Ghana is actually asking descendants of slaves in America and the Caribbean to come back to live and help the nation grow and prosper. I would advise you get out your little town or neighborhood and experience things for yourself. From someone who has been many places, trust me, black and brown nations do not care about what's going on in the USA. Until you go to these thriving BLACK NATIONS and see yourself, You'll continue to think the way you do.

I'm glad you've had such great experiences. I know about Ghana and I've been outside this country. I have also dated women of African, South American, Jamaican, and many other nationalities but that doesn't stop or change how people feel about Black Americans. And I know No one cares about us, except us. That's very apparent through your argument and the fact that you can murder an unarmed black American and be freed in American courts. But that's a whole different topic that I'm sure we disagree on. I pray you continue being blessed enough to not face the same challenges that other black Americans face. PEACE!

amricaiscowardnation Then why do most all Asians worship Buddha who was a black man that walked the earth just over 35,000 years ago...During which time "Only black people" lived on planet earth... and no other race...When we built the pyramids 50,000 years ago Buddah had not been born yet... The Black Man that most Asians worshipped as a God wasn't born until 15,000 years later. The so-called Lost city of Atlantis was built by us 5,000 years "After" The Black Asian God Buddah...in essence, The Black Man is a "Spiritual Divine Being" why, how, and what will be explained later... To discover the truth. check the origin of Man... not mankind"...There is a big difference between the two. one is only 6,000 years old, and the other is over 60, trillion years old. The Black Man, and his existence is unimaginable to all the races on planet earth. Class dismissed for today.

Thank you Hassan Reeves. We have all been conditioned to believe otherwise so its time we changed it....for black people at least. Since our enslavement by Europeans and 1000 years before that by the Arabs, most of the other races have colluded in denying our contribution to the earth's history. Its so bad that they violently refuse any link to us and call it coincidence. Arabs who invaded and settled in most of what is now called North Africa have been allowing and encouraging the lie that they are both the Ancient Egyptians and the Moors...both of which evidently were black Africans, who for whatever reason mixed with the Arabs who became dominant and usurped the legacy. Europeans also claim to be Ancient Egyptians and reinforce this using Hollywood films etc depicting them as Pharaohs and us as their slaves. They even had the audacity to make a movie called the Gods of Egypt with a majority White cast. These images reinforce their lies.....but I digress. Trying to educate or debate with racist trolls on youtube isnt going to be very productive as they breed like the rats they are,,,but I commend you for trying.

@Magnum Opus. I find its better to converse with those that have actually researched the subject matter rather than voice their racist opinions. Man originated in AFRICA and became mankind thousands of years later through migration. Mankind retained traits of the African but not all. There is evidence of African features in the INDIANS and the Chinese but the skin color is the main trait that points to African dna. China has very few people of dark skin but India has millions. Australia and all Polynesian countries indigenous people are remnants of African dna, but according to RACISTS or those who dont research and just follow the mainstream media, Aborigines are not connected due to their facial structure being different...lol...what a joke. As if ALL AFRICANS in the continent look exactly the same throughout Africa. Africans do not ALL look like Nigerians and even all Nigerians do not look the same..Hell do ALL African Americas look the same?,,,,lol,,,but to the simple minded this is empirical evidence of a disconnect. A denial that if you resemble an African you probably are. Black skin IS sufficient

Unlike your vehement protestations we (the conscious black people above) have all cited veritable sources. we are not merely predicating our arguments on blind prejudice and hate. we reference to substantial accounts of history which can be ascertained by factual chronicles. you? - you are a mere misologist that disdains truth for it poses an adverse position to your fairytale tenets. everything these gentlemen have asserted is incontrovertible to your blind creed of hatred. I'm sorry but we are no longer living in the Camelot days of white hegemony where any bull you spill is taken as the categorical truth. we have the manumnt to think freely, liberatingly now. in fact you probably can't even read my tirade without referring to the dictionary periodically. you say blacks can't even stand each other but when in history have Blacks murdered Blacks like whites have murdered whites in innumerable bulk as seen in ww1, ww2? not to mention the war of independence for american against the Tories. or how about the French revolution? how about Hitler and Napoleon? you guys evidently appear to hate each other more than blacks hate blacks.. but I am expatiating greatly... next time read some before you opine much. hahaha

The Egyptians were no MORE(in fact, probably less) black in their "Golden Era" than they are today. The Nubians of which you speak interbred with a sect of early Egyptians and the resultant "race" never amounted to anything. In fact, they went BACKWARD in terms of technology and advancement. "Google" that!

3rd eye You got a thesaurus for Christmas? What you're doing is trying to win the argument with verbosity, but it's all a reach. You misuse many words and your lexical choice is awkward and forced. You even congratulate yourself for it.

You'd be better off sticking to the points and being succinct.

take notice of how white people try to indoctrinate other race of people when its convenient. i see that a lot. its their way of having someone on their side to put down those they hate, even though they hate everyone. Same here with whites and Asians comment

BC Koreans, especially the older generation, are very grateful for the Allies intervention in the Korean War. Without that, they would now be under that nut cake control in North Korea. The one that has the entire north in step with his Stalin like control over everything. Killing off people which keeps others in line.
